	Don Ramie & Terri King	"Channel Your Inner Bob Ross" Painting Session	One of MPUUC's resident artists, Don Ramie, will direct this painting class via Zoom. All supplies will be provided and dropped off on your doorstep by Don's lovely assistant, Terri King, who is also hosting the Zoom meeting and helping Don buy the supplies. This is no joke—it's educational! But it will also be easy and fun. You can't get lost, because Don will take you through the process step-by-step.	Jan 23, 2021, 1:00–3:00	$50.00	$25.00	12
	Don Ramie	"See the Lights" Christmas Tour	How about a local trip around Fremont to see the Christmas lights? Don Ramie will provide maps and conduct a driving tour around Fremont to see Christmas lights. The tour will start at the glorious Glenmoor Tree at the corner of Eggers and Glenmoor Drive. After an hour and a half driving around seeing the sights, we'll arrive at Don's house where he always has a beautiful display. You can get out and stretch your legs, walk among over 50 illuminated, old-fashioned lawn figures Don has collected over the years, and enjoy a spiced fruit punch that Don's daughter will make. It should be absolutely magical (not the punch, the evening). [Note: Bids are 'per car']	December 19, 6:30–8:00 p.m.	$50.00	$20.00	10

	John Porter	The Rime of the Ancient Mariner	Want to feel better about not being able to go on a trip? "Water, water everywhere and all the boards did shrink. Water, water everywhere, nor any drop to drink." Samuel Taylor Coleridge's epic poem, "The Rime of the Ancient Mariner," published in 1798, recounts the experience of an old sailor who has returned from a long and hazardous sea voyage. He stops a wedding guest and begins a story which Dave Porter will read for us. The poem describes how the mariner shot an albatross, spelling disaster for his ship and fellow sailors, and how he feels compelled to tell this story over and over. David is the son of John and Jackie Porter. As a teenager he became enthralled with this poem and memorized much of it. He will read it for us via Zoom and John & Jackie will show Gustave Doré's original wood block prints inspired by the poem. There will be time at the end for questions and a discussion of the meaning of the poem.	February 21, 2021	Priceless	$20.00	8
