

This Week on the Peak

Mission Peak UU - Fremont, CA The Home of Liberal Religion in the Tri-Cities and Beyond! June 8, 2022

Greetings!

For me, Juneteenth (Freedom Day, Jubilee) is the celebration of love, family, and liberty. I would like to personally invite you, those you love, and those you care about to our first ever Mission Peak Unitarian Universalist Congregation picnic celebration of Juneteenth.

Safety first.

This is an in-person event, but it is outdoors. People are welcome to wear masks and maintain whatever social distance makes them comfortable. We have purchased colored name tags. If you put your name on a GREEN name tag it indicates that you're comfortable with people getting close and possibly giving you a hug. If you put your name on a YELLOW name tag it will suggest no direct contact but it's OK to get as close as 6 feet. A RED name tag tells others to maintain a distance over 6 feet if they are not in your cohort. Hopefully, this will allow us to enjoy each other but keep each other safe as well.

Father's Day

Also, this year, Juneteenth is on Father's Day. What better way to appreciate our fathers than with good food, friends, family, and the celebration of freedom? Please take family and fathers to the picnic.

Music

Bekah, Shauna, and others kindly agreed to share music and song with us.

Food

There will be food provided but please consider bringing items to share. If you are more adventurous, you can try preparing some typical southern recipes

Here is a link for some traditional side dishes.

Please sign up for the picnic on the Evite Barbara Meyers sent below

<http://evite.me/KAJAqPER2N>

In addition, kindly let us know if you have questions, ideas, if you can help, or if you have needs to be considered.

Thank you for being willing to celebrate with me!

Happy Juneteenth!!

Kathi Bayne

This Sunday's Service:

We have transitioned to hybrid services. See mpuuc.org/zoom each week for how to attend services.

Flower Communion

Our annual Flower Communion service asks us to remember the courage and vision of Norbert Capek who presided over one of the largest Unitarian Congregations in Prague, Czechoslovakia in the years when the Nazi regime terrorized political dissidents for criticizing the Third Reich. Capek asked people to imagine the beautiful diversity in everything - from skin color to language to cuisine. He asked people to bring flowers to represent all the difference that was possible. In this service we will be radical dissidents for diversity.

Rev. Greg Ward and special guests will lead the service. Worship Host will be Steve Wallcave. Jay and Jessica Steele will provide our music.

EVERYONE BRING FLOWERS ON SUNDAY!

This Sunday is our annual Flower Communion Sunday. Whether you are joining us in Cole Hall or from your home, PLEASE REMEMBER TO BRING FLOWERS. If you can, make it an occasion and buy simple bouquet from the store or go out to your garden and pick a few different varieties of things in bloom. Lay them out and have a vase to put them in. In the service, we will remember the ritual as it was developed by Dr. Capek and explore ways that flowers have been part of powerful expressions of our heart. We will recall times of celebration and times of mourning... times of starting and times of ending and the ways the metaphor of flowers reminded us of our beauty, resilience, purpose and power.

Whether you are attending services in Cole Hall or remotely you can donate money and/or fulfill your pledge in the 3 ways shown below:

Special note of condolence and Love

Dear friends,

I'm sad to report the heartbreaking news that former MPUUC member, Kevin Campbell, after a difficult recurrence of depression, took his own life on Friday. This is painful news to hear, and to share. We're asking for everyone to hold Natalie and Milo with sensitivity and tenderness. They are not up to speaking with folks, but if you would like to send a note of love and encouragement, ask the Encouragement Committee (ecteam@mpuuc.org) and we will pass on their address or email. MPUUC will be working with their current congregation (UU Berkeley), to offer as much care and comfort as we possibly can. Because these losses are incredibly complicated, if you would like to talk to me or Rev. Barbara or someone on the Encouragement Committee, please reach out. These are hard moments and we need one another. – Rev. Greg Congratulations to this year's Volunteer of the Year, Valerie Stewart!

The Board offers tremendous gratitude for all the work Valerie did with the Canvass team, making this one of our most successful fundraising years ever! She also spearheaded Guest at Your Table, providing content for four different services, several Week on the Peak articles and one full service dedicated to UUSC. She did this while also heading up the Sunday Support Services team, serving on Leadership Development, helping out with setup and takedown, and just in general stepping up whenever she saw a need.

Some of Valerie's attributes that make her such a precious member of this community are: her sense of history, ability to maintain strong relationships, a keen sense of inclusivity, incredible and reliable follow through. She is someone who is fiercely loyal to the things she takes on and the people she works with. She is a great source of institutional history and she maintains connections throughout the large community. She understands tradition and many of the ways we've done it in the past, but is also game to try something new. The Board, Rev. Greg, Rev. Barbara, and all of MPUUC are grateful for all she does!

Share the Plate

Last month's Share the Plate was for NAMI and collection ended on May 29. We collected $992.02. Thank you to all who contributed.

Share the Plate will pause for the Summer and will resume in September.

Each week, we post the previous Sunday's Joys and Concerns that we were given permission to share. We encourage you to make room in your heart for the hopes and fears of your fellow members. Reach out to celebrate and console those you care about. Here's the Joys and Concerns for June 5 as well as the prior 3 weeks. If you would like your joy or concern to appear in the Wheel of Life, contact the Encouragement Committee at

Safety Policy for Hybrid Services in Cole Hall

Attendees should be masked inside and outside of Cole Hall during the service. We encourage people to wear N95 (or equivalent) which are more effective than cloth or surgical masks. We have such masks available in Cole Hall on Sunday mornings. We encourage people to only come inside Cole Hall if fully vaccinated and boosted. Because vaccinated people can still spread the disease to others, we strongly encourage those in contact with unvaccinated or immunocompromised people to attend services outside or via Zoom.

The board Safety Policy on how we allow services in Cole Hall is in the "About->Congregational Documents" section of the mpuuc.org web site. If you wonder how we are trying to keep us all safe as we gather together again, please read it. We expect to continue to monitor what is safe and make changes as needed.

We also have other board policies related to Covid-19 in section 18 of the board policies document, which is also in the "About->Congregational Documents" section of the website. The outdoor event guidelines in section 18.2 will control how we would be able to have food or drinks outside after the service, or for special events. Contact Steve Wallcave with any questions about either safety policy.

Midweek Discussion Group

The Minister's Midweek Discussion Group meets on Thursdays at 10:00 a.m. This week's discussion will be about the most meaningful exchanges we've had that included flowers. For some, this might be the ritual of leaving flowers at a gravesite. For some, it may be the bouquet that is your beloved's favorite. Maybe it's the annual ritual of deciding what you plant in your yard. Maybe it's the flower left on your desk by a coworker or given to you on your retirement. How have you ritualized something with flowers? The link to the conversation can be found if you Press here. Next week's discussion will be about how we have celebrated independence day. And whether we have ever felt hesitant or excluded from the celebration for any reason. Do we know anyone who didn't feel like it applied to them? What does freedom and independence mean and how can those who are free help recognize the needs of those who aren't.

Poor People's Campaign: Moral March on Washington, D.C.

Any nation that ignores nearly half of its citizens is in a moral, economic, and political crisis. There were 140 million people who were poor or one emergency away from economic ruin before the pandemic. Since March 2020, while hundreds of thousands of people have died, millions are on the edge of hunger and eviction and still without health care or living wages, while billionaire wealth has grown by over $2 trillion. Join the Poor People's Campaign for a Moral March on Washington and to the Polls. RSVP here.
