Our Mission Statement:

The foundation of Mission Peak is love. We are a spiritual community of open minds, nurturing growth and healing in ourselves and all people. Together we strive to live compassionately and courageously as we work for a nonviolent, just and sustainable world.

Love is the power that holds us together and is at the center of our shared values.
Interdependence of all existence. With reverence for the great web of life and our place in it.
Pluralism – We celebrate that we are all sacred beings, diverse in culture, experience and theology.
Justice – We work to be diverse multicultural Beloved Communities where all thrive.
Transformation – We adapt to the changing world.
Generosity – We cultivate a spirit of gratitude and hope.
Equity – We declare that every person has the right to flourish with inherent dignity and worthiness.

Centering Thought

It is only with the clear image of how mind and body intersect with the world that one may hope to find a road to thorough self-knowledge, and to a full appreciation of what it means to be alive. Matt Strassler

The energy in our bodies, and in all ordinary things, is a tiny remnant of the past, a memory of the universe's violent birth. Matt Strassler

We are aspects of the universe. We are always inside empty space, and it's always inside us. Matt Strassler

Next Week's Service: July 13 – "What Unitarian Universalism Has to Say in 2025"
Rev. Barbara Meyers will lead the service and assisting will be Worship Associate Kathi Bayne. Worship Host will be Erik Alm. Jay Steele will provide our music.

Things are changing in every part of the country, the world and life in general. This is a service to help us keep tabs on not only what is changing around us, but what is changing within us - as Unitarian Universalists. A number of people went to General Assembly this year - including Ariel Smith-Iyer who attended for the first time. This is what they see as the relevant changes within our own approach to building the Beloved Community.
