

This Week on the Peak

Mission Peak UU - Fremont, CA The Home of Liberal Religion in the Tri-Cities and Beyond! December 31, 2025

Greetings!

Happiest of New Years to you.

I don't know about you, but on this last day of the old year, it's feeling like I'm walking backward into the new year. And there are many reasons why.

First, I really don't trust this last year we've been through. I don't want to turn my back on it for fear of being hit broadside with yet another unbearable bit of news. I've quickly become wary of living in a country that all of a sudden attacks sovereign nations, or turns its back on allies we've sworn to protect, or has suddenly chosen to only protect and serve only people of one political party, one religion, one ethnicity, one national origin, one gender, sexual orientation or economic status.

But the second reason I'm walking backward into the year ahead is just as compelling. After announcing my retirement in August, I am coming to terms with the reality that this will be the last year I will wake up on New Year's Day feeling like I'm surrounded by an entire community that has my back, shares my values, offers me wise counsel and good company. I want to turn around and walk confidently into the future knowing I do so with a compassionate community around me, but in some ways I feel a little too much attachment to let go of the people and things I've come to trust, respect and admire.

The theme this month is Practicing Resistance. I am hoping we can take some of the trust, commitment and passion for what good and true to move together toward the right side of history. And that we can compel other good folks to join us as we do. Practicing resistance isn't defiance or avoiding all we don't like. Nor is it about honoring our attachment to people who see everything the same way we do.

Practicing resistance is about recognizing our power and what we have it for. It is about taking risks to put the love we've found to its best use. It's about serving as agents of positive change over harm or personal comfort.

This Sunday, we will participate in our Fire Communion – naming the kind of people and community we want to become and letting go of the attachments that keep us from our ideals. On Sunday Jan 11, we will explore some inspiring stories of people and communities who've faced great challenge and modeled what courage looks like. And on Sunday, Jan 18, we will have our Action Sunday where we both talk about the courage to face outward as well as go out to the farmer's market and ask people to join us on our January 19 Day of Service.

It means so much to me that I get to do this with you. Thank you for helping make this New Year something we can all be proud of as the beginning of a new legacy.

Rev. Greg Ward

This Sunday's Service:

Service can be attended in-person at Cole Hall or online. See mpuuc.org/zoom each week for how to attend services.

A Deadline for Lifelines

Every new beginning starts with the remnants of something that has ended. Much of what has ended has endeared itself to us in ways too valuable or too tender to release. These are the parts we hold on to, cherish and build from. But, there are also parts that hold on to us and won't let go. Sometimes old things flood our heart or take up all the available RAM in our head, keeping us from moving forward. This is a service about recognizing what we're ready to let go of.

Rev. Greg Ward will lead the service and assisting will be Worship Associate Paul K. Davis. Erik Alm will be Worship Host. Von Bringhurst and Peak Performers will provide our music.

Whether you are attending services in Cole Hall or remotely, you can donate and/or fulfill your pledge in the 3 ways shown below:

Dear Mission Peak Congregation,

Here is the link to the Ministerial Search Profile that has been submitted to the UUA so candidate ministers can learn about MPUUC, its members and its activities. This is offered for your information, NOT for editing. If you have a comment that you think might be useful for the Search Team to consider when interviewing potential ministers next year, you may send it to: search@mpuuc.org

Otherwise, we ask your respect in remembering that this has already been submitted and would be very difficult to alter.

Thank you for your interest in the search process.

The City of Fremont is Seeking Volunteers for 2026 Point-in-Time Homeless Count

On any given night in Fremont, too many of our unhoused neighbors are sleeping in parks, vehicles, or on sidewalks. We need your immediate help to make a difference! The City of Fremont urgently seeks 150 volunteers for the vital 2026 EveryOne Counts Point-in-Time Count on Thursday, January 22, 2026, from 5:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m.

This count, conducted in partnership with Alameda County, is more than just a survey. It's how Fremont secures the essential funding to support our unhoused residents and provide services. The more accurate our count, the better we can serve our community.

Some of us MPUUC Folks plan to participate in the counting and demographics-gathering of unhoused folks in Fremont as part of a county-wide effort on January 22. Mission Peak folks will be able to sign up as a group so that we can work as small groups together with people we know.

PLEASE sign up at the link below and be sure to indicate that you are with the "MPUUC" group and that you choose to work in FREMONT. This way we'll get info on where to go and what to do as a group. (Note: Beth requested that we get to canvass "The Slab" near church since many of us are getting to know some of those folks.) Here is the link: If you would like to be part of this, you can sign up to volunteer at <https://alameda.pointintime.info>. Remember to select "FREMONT" as your service location and include MPUUC as the group you are part of.

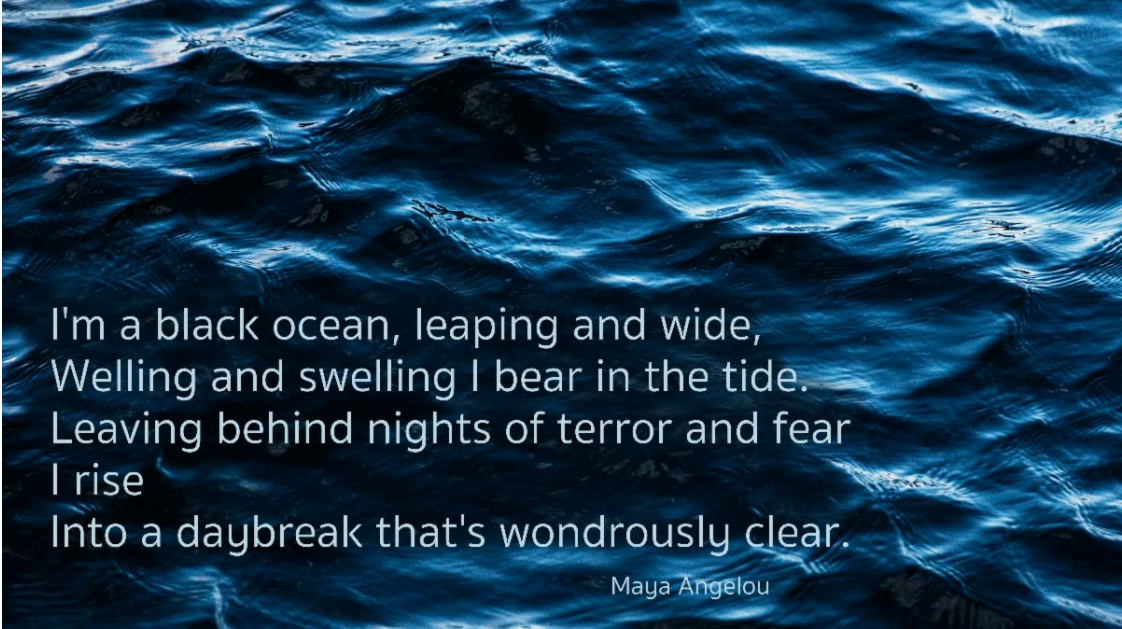

PLEASE consider this important one-time opportunity to help secure funding and services for these unhoused neighbors. Yes, this is extremely early (5-10am). Be brave! We suggest breakfast together afterward.

PLEASE email Secretary@mpuuc.org to let us know you are volunteering.

In solidarity,

Beth Schaefer and Valerie Stewart

Anti-Racism Anti-Oppression Committee (ARO) Recommendations

Weekdays • 12:00 – 12:30 pm • Jewish Voice For Peace Power Half-Hour for Gaza(VIRTUAL)

How To Have Courageous Conversations – In time for the holidays, IfNotNow has put together A Guide for Discussing Israel/Palestine at your dinner table. Especially geared for Jewish community members, the guide is also a useful tool for anyone to have courageous conversations about Palestine with family and friends.

Tell your Members of Congress to Condemn the Trump Administration's Anti-Immigrant Policies – The Trump administration is responding to the tragic attack on two National Guard troops by pursuing collective punishment against the most vulnerable in our communities to advance a racist and unconscionable anti-immigrant agenda. Trump has said he plans to expand his xenophobic travel ban to more than 30 countries, halt asylum applications, and impose more restrictions on nationals of the existing 19 travel ban countries. Congress must stand against this hate-filled effort to scapegoat entire communities, including our Afghan and Somali neighbors who have become the focus of some of these most recent attacks.
